Hi <First Name>,

I am aware that you get plenty of emails daily. So, I decided to send you a follow-up email for my earlier mail in case you missed it.

I was contemplating whether you would like to reference our article <Hyperlink of the article> in your post or topic. We have also gathered a string of topics, which we feel would be an ideal match for quite a few of your posts.

Particularly this <Hyperlink> would fit perfectly in your prospects' blog post. Don't you echo my thought as well?

I am looking forward to a quick revert from you!
