Subject: Expressing gratitude for educating my child

Dear Mr. Carson,

Hope you are doing well.

Emily came up to me yesterday after school and told me she was being bullied by her classmates for having glasses. While I was upset about this incident, what relieved me was how you handled the situation. I'm grateful to you for standing up for my daughter.

Emily told me how you intervened at the right moment and handled the situation smartly, resulting in her classmates apologizing to her for their behavior. I have an elder son who had undergone severe bullying in a previous school and the administration never handled it appropriately. When I see how you explained why bullying is bad instead of admonishing them, I am grateful that you are Emily's teacher.

Thank you for being such a positive influence on the kids; we need more teachers like you.

Yours Sincerely,

Lee Carter
