Subject: Expressing gratitude for educating me

Dear Mr. Carson,

Teacher's appreciation day is coming up, and I remembered how long it had been since I reached out to you. Years have passed since preschool and my schooling years, for that matter. However, I will never forget your class back in kindergarten, and I am grateful for that.

Growing up, I was always into books and not into going outside to play with other kids. This often concerned my parents because they felt I was reclusive and would end up alone in the world. Even kids in my class teased me about it. However, you always understood that I was just a shy kid who needed the right people to open up.

Because of your encouragement, I was able to bloom into the person I have become today. I want to thank you for being such a great teacher. The world definitely needs more teachers like you.

Yours Sincerely,

Lee Carter
