Dear Brother's Name,

Hello, my annoying brother. This letter might come as a surprise to you but I want you to know that everything I write here is true. I am so proud of you for getting accepted to Oxford. You are the first person from the family to go abroad for further studies and that also to Oxford. I am so happy for you, my brother. Your hard work and patience got you here and I hope you continue doing that in future.

Staying away from you is going to be tough but I know that you will always be a call away. I promise to take care of mom and dad alone. Keep coming back home regularly and don't forget to bring my gifts. As the time for your farewell is approaching, I wanted to throw a party for you. See you tomorrow at 9 pm.

My best wishes are always there with you. I hope you do great in life and keep making us proud!

Yours Lovingly,

XYZ (Sender's Name)
