

MAILtoSELF

Dear

wifey,

A letter from me may come as a surprise to you but this letter holds my truest feelings and my heartfelt thanks.

I don't know how I would have lived my life without you. The way you take care of me, guide me when I'm confused, manage the house through the most difficult times, is simply amazing. I can't imagine anyone but you by my side my entire life.

From the day I saw you in the quaint cafe, to the sweaty and nervous proposal, and our wedding day, only you have been the special one for me always. I am so fortunate to have you as my soul mate.

Because of you, I never feel alone, or scared, or lost. Yes, it's true and I'm proud to say that 'I love you'. Thank you for holding my hand in good times and bad with equal enthusiasm. I admire you as you are because you are the best!

Love you always

Your hubby (Name)
